Packers Lose Lewis Star to Marine Corps

STEVENS POINT, Wis. (UP) — Green Bay Packer Coach Lisle Blackbourn said Tuesday night he did not know whether Val Joe Walker, Dick Afflis and Gus Cifelli would report in time to see action in the intra-squad game here Saturday night.

The three veterans are scheduled to report to the training camp this week.

laughed. "For me, this is the third time and I should be a good luck charm. One thing sure, as long as I see you I'll be out there."
